OFFICE NOTE

Submitted:

(1) The enclosed is a Srimukha sent by the Sri Swamigalu of Sri Akshobhyathirtha Mutt, in which the Swamigalu says that that the Mutt was in receipt of a grant of ten varahas from the Government for a long time but as the Swamis of the Mutt were constantly on tour, the grant was not being regularly received, that Mummadi Sri Krishnaraja Wadiyar granted a Sannad in 1814, perpetuating the grant, that this grant was received in the years 1816 and 1817, but later on was not received owing to changes in the Swamis and agents in the Mutt, that representations made during the Dewanship of Sir P.N. Krishna Murthy for payment of the grant due till then were not favourably considered, that the Mutt is unfortunately not in possession of the Sannad or other records and that the Government may look into their records and revive the grant.

(11) It is seen from Muzrai collection 99 of 02-03. Pls 1-7 (B for March 07) that Hanumantha Rao the then Agent of Shri Akshobhya Theertha Mutt of Kodli in Shimoga Taluk, petitioned to the Dewan stating that the late Dewan Poornaiah had granted to the Mutt ten Bhadra pagodas per mensem for reciting Vedas and feeding devotees in the Mutt on the first day of Chaitra Bahula, and that later on, in July 1814 His late Highness Krishnaraja Wodeyar III had confirmed the cash grant by means of a Sanned, and praying that as the payment (to the Mutt) of the cash grant had been stopped for some reasons not known to the then head of the Mutt (Shri Raghu Shantha Theertha Swamy), the same may be revived.

ROUTINE NOTES.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

From the D.C. Shimoga Distt. he reported in his letter No. 713/46, dated the 23rd January 1906, that as there was no proper representative of the Mutt at the time of the Inam settlement and as the then Swamiji was on tour, the claim for the cash grant was not urged, that the Shimoga Taluk Jama Kaveh account for 1816-17 showed that 120 pagodas were paid to the Mutt in pursuance of the direction in the Sannad, that there were no records to show why and how the grant had been stopped and that as the authorities of the Mutt did not have the Sannad at that time to represent their case and recommended that the matter may receive consideration as the grant (of the allowance) was authorised by Sannad and by entries in old accounts. The Supdt of Inams was consulted next, and he reported that there was no reference in his office to show that 10 Pagodas were paid monthly to the institution in question.

(13) As the Agent had produced the original Sannad granted by His late Highness and certain accounts, they were sent to the Supdt of Inams with the request that the case might be investigated and his report (on the result thereof) furnished. He replied in his letter No. Ge 88, dated 12.2.1907, stating that as the Mutt did not enjoy the grant since 1818 and there were no records to show that the allowance was paid subsequently, the matter was not enquired into and settled by the Inams Dept during settlement. Thereupon an endorsement was issued to the Agent of the Mutt (No. 4416, dated the 5th March 1907) informing him that as the Mutt had not enjoyed the grant since 1818, it was not possible for Govt to restore the cash grant. The Sannad produced by him was returned with the endorsement.

a reference has been made to a precedent in which a lapsed grant was revived after a number of years. The case referred to is the cash grant pertaining to Kambalu Mutt at Shivaganga in Nelamangala Taluk. This institution was granted a sannad by the Maharaja on 11.8.1818 entitling it to the cash Grant of 5 Kanteerai pagodas per mensem for feeding devotees. The grant was reduced thereon and subsequently discontinued altogether. The grant was also not brought under investigation at the time of Inam settlement. On 11th November 1903, one Channa Basava Tirthaiya stated to be the manager of the Mutt having applied for the revival of the cash grant, Govt. Sanctioned the payment of an allowance of Rs 3/8/- p.m. -- G.O No. 2347-9, dated 23.12.1904 sanctioning the revival of the grant wasfor perusal.

(17) [illegible]

(15) Old Records containing a copy of the Sannad granted to the Mutt on 6th July 1814, and Shimoga Taluk Inamati Chitta accounts for 1816-17, which are in Marathi language, show that a cash grant of 120 pagodas to which the Mutt in question was entitled, had been stopped, and that on the representation of the then Swamiji to revive the grant (vide Ex. H) the grant was revived by the said Sannad. and that sum of 120 pagodas was paid to the Swamiji to perform the seva mentioned in the Sannad during that year.

(16). Whether the question of restoring the grant after the lapse of more than 125 years is to be taken up now, as urged by the present Swamiji is for consideration and orders.

(19) It is understood that the grant was first made by Dewan Purnaiah in the year 'Roudri' which corresponds to 1800. The amount of the grant was 120 'bahadari varahas' or roughly Rs 360/ per annum. The occurrence of the word 'Sri Sri' in the Sanad issued by Sri Mummadi Krishnaraja Wadayar seems to indicate that the Mutt enjoyed the grant for a number of years, and that soon after it was stopped, the Head of the Institution complained to the Maharajah who revived it and confirmed it in favour of the Mutt by means of a sanad dt. 6.7.1874. The Chitta accounts of the Shimoga Taluk office show that payments were made till 1818 when the grant was stopped for reasons which no one has been to explain. The case was not considered the Inam Commission (1868-69) because the grant was not then in vogue and no one on behalf of the mutt urged the claim before it. It is believed that the Head of the mutt was absent from at the time, and apparently there was no representative at Kudli to safeguard the interests of the mutt.

(20) When the case was put before Govt in 1906-07 the representation of the mutt does not appear to have received proper consideration. The claim of the mutt was rejected on the ground that considerable time had elapsed after the cessation of the grant. The main reason which seems to have influenced Govt in coming to the decision was the fear that if the claim were conceded it would be difficult afterwards to resist similar claims. But it is clear now that the fear was not well founded. There were two precedents already. During the Maharaja Rule the large cash grants and inams
enjoyed by Sri Arunachaleswara Swami
Temple at Harohalli in Kankanhalli
Taluk were resumed by the State, but in 1879 Govt held that the institution deserved some consideration and sanctioned a cash grant of Rs 84/-. Then there is the case of the Kamakoti Mutt at Sivaganga which was decided by Govt in 1904 when the grant was stopped for some unknown reason this mutt was enjoying a cash ~~grant~~ allowance of ₹ 15 pagodas (equal to Rs 42/-). On the representation of the Manager in 1904 the Govt sanctioned a cash grant which was the equivalent of 15 pagodas. On facts, there is a very close resemblance between this case and the one under reference, and it is a matter for surprise that a similar treatment was not accorded to the Mutt at Kudlé which its case came up for consideration in less than 2 years later.

(21) The original grant was made by competent authority i.e. Diwan Purnia Later on, the Sovereign revived it and confirmed it by the issue of a Sannad whose authenticity is beyond dispute. In the Sannad the object of the grant is stated to be for ಪೂಜೆ ನಿತ್ಯ ನೈವೇದ್ಯ and ಅಲಂಕಾರ: ಹಾಗೂ ಕೈಂಕರ್ಯ i.e. feeding and praying for the prosperity of the Ruling House. The recipient is a religious institution situated within the State but not having enough resources, to maintain it as it is.

It is understood that this grant is one of the four Mutts established by Madhva charya at Udupi Madhva Brahmins form an influential section of His Highness subjects
The amount involved is after all small viz Rs 200/- p.a and I think it would be a graceful gesture if the Govt could see their way to restore the grant in conformity with the wishes of the Maharajah as expressed in the Vasiyat of 1878

(22) It is not known why the grant was stopped in the year 1918. The very fact that the Mutt acquiesced in the decision for about ½ Century probably indicates that the stoppage was for good reasons.

(23) The matter was considered in the year 1907 and Govt were not in favour of its revival after Consulting the Dewan Chairman

(26) There is precedent for the revival of a grant which was stopped and not brought under investigation at the time of the Inam Settlement (vide the case of the Sri Rambalu Mutt whose grant was revived in G.O.No.2347-9 dated 23rd Dec.1904)

(27) The present case of the Sri Akshobhya Thirtha Mutt at Kudli is similar to that of the Sri Rambalu Mutt; and, if the grant is revived by Government, the beneficiary will be a religious and charitable institution, and not an individu

Sri Rajamreera Thirtha Swami of the Sri Akhobhya Tirtha matt has petitioned the Dewan praying for the restoration of the cash grant of 10 Varahas per month.

The case may be written up
10/3

One of his predecessors Raghu-Uttama Tirtha Swami had petitioned in 1902 on the same subject. This was forwarded to the Dy Coll. Shimoga. He then Dy Comm. Mr K. Chandy Nair, a report stating that it was known why & how the grant lapsed: As the Swami was living the claim was not urged on the Inam Sett. He however recommended that the matter may receive consideration as the grant is authorized by Sanads the genuineness of which cannot be questioned and by entries in the old

The Dewan Peishkar reported that the Matt had not enjoyed the grant since 1818 and that the accounts did not show that the grant was paid to the Matt. Thereupon the Matt was informed that it was not possible to restore the grant.

The stoppage of the grant came to the notice of H.H. the late Maharaja Sri Krishna Rajendra Wodeyar III who issued a Sanad on 6th July 1814 directing that the grant should be continued uninterruptedly. That the Matt did actually enjoy the grant during the year Yuva to Eswara (1816–17) is borne out by the Rayada Inamdi Chikkaya of the Shimoga Taluk.

Under similar circumstances a Cash grant of Rs 42 per annum was ordered to be restored to the Kambalu Matt as Dharmadaya.

The present Swami of the Math states that his predecessors were always on tour and therefore the cash grant was not drawn. For more than 30 years the grant has lapsed to Govt. He does not claim it. He prays that the grant may be restored from now. The Math being a time honored institution with its Head Quarters at Kudli, Shimoga, and the grant also being small about Rs 24 per months, the Raja deserves Sympathetic consideration.
